

Milton Church of England Primary School Ethos

At Milton Church of England Primary School we aim for excellence by continually providing a high quality education for each young person in a caring and safe environment.

What do we offer?

Children are offered the opportunity

- to become confident and positive
- to value themselves and others
- to be self disciplined and well motivated
- to experience a creative school curriculum that meets the individual needs of all the children and offers full access to a rich, imaginative and relevant education
- to achieve their full potential

Parents are offered a partnership through...

- a full involvement in school activities
- a thriving PTA
- regular communication and consultation

What makes this a successful school?

- A very conscientious and capable staff who have high expectations of themselves and the children, and who are highly regarded by parents
- An excellent support staff
- Comprehensive special needs provision
- Positive and effective leadership from the school management team
- A well organised environment with excellent learning resources and good class sizes
- A positive school ethos creating an atmosphere which reflects basic Christian principles
- An encouraging and supportive governing body

Ethos Statement of our Church of England School

Recognising its historic foundation, Milton Church of England School will preserve and develop its religious character in accordance with the principles of the Church of England and in partnership with the Church at parish and diocesan level.

The school aims to serve its community by providing an education of the highest quality within the context of Christian belief and practice. It encourages an understanding of the meaning and significance of faith and promotes Christian values through the experience it offers to all its pupils.
